OUR ILLUSTRATIONS.

THE DRAMATIC FETE AT THE CRYSTAL PALACE.—We devote a considerable portion of our space this week to illustrations of scenes at the Crystal Palace on Saturday and Monday last, when the fete in aid of the funds of the Dramatic College was held. A full account of the proceedings in connection therewith will be found elsewhere.

MR. NELSON LEE.—Intimately connected with the proceedings at the Palace on Saturday, is the name of Mr. Nelson Lee, whose portrait we engrave on another page. Mr. Lee has done good service in his generation, inasmuch as some of his admirable pantomimes have extracted many a hearty laugh from both young and old. His fertility as a dramatic author is something wonderful, having produced considerably over one hundred pantomimes. On Saturday, he was to be seen figuring in front of Richardson's booth, of which we give an engraving elsewhere, entertaining the bystanders to step in and partake of the richest historic treat ever offered to the public. A portion of this feast of reason and flow of soul was none other than a new and original drama written by himself, with the screeching title, "The Mysterious Monk, or the Secret of the Iron Pillar." This extraordinary production seemed to tax the vocal and instrumental capabilities of the actors to the utmost. In short, both in structure and sentiment it is thoroughly Richardsonian, and displayed much ability on the part of the author.

FRANK LILLYWHITE.—There are few admirers and supporters of the noble game of cricket that have done so much to promote its growth in this country as Frank Lillywhite, whose portrait will be found elsewhere. His name is inseparably connected with the game, and is known throughout the length and breadth of the land. Our engraving is from a photograph published by George Newbold.

THE ROYAL LONDON YACHT CLUB.—The closing sailing match of the season took place on Saturday, when a splendid race occurred between the Vampire, Satanella, and Octobron, the Vampire carrying off the first prize. On the following Monday there was an amateur match over the same course, and, as may be seen by the report which we give elsewhere, it turned out to be a great success. Five yachts entered, and after a capital race the Vampire was again victorious. Our engraving represents the Vampire and Satanella just at the moment they were rounding the commodore's boat.

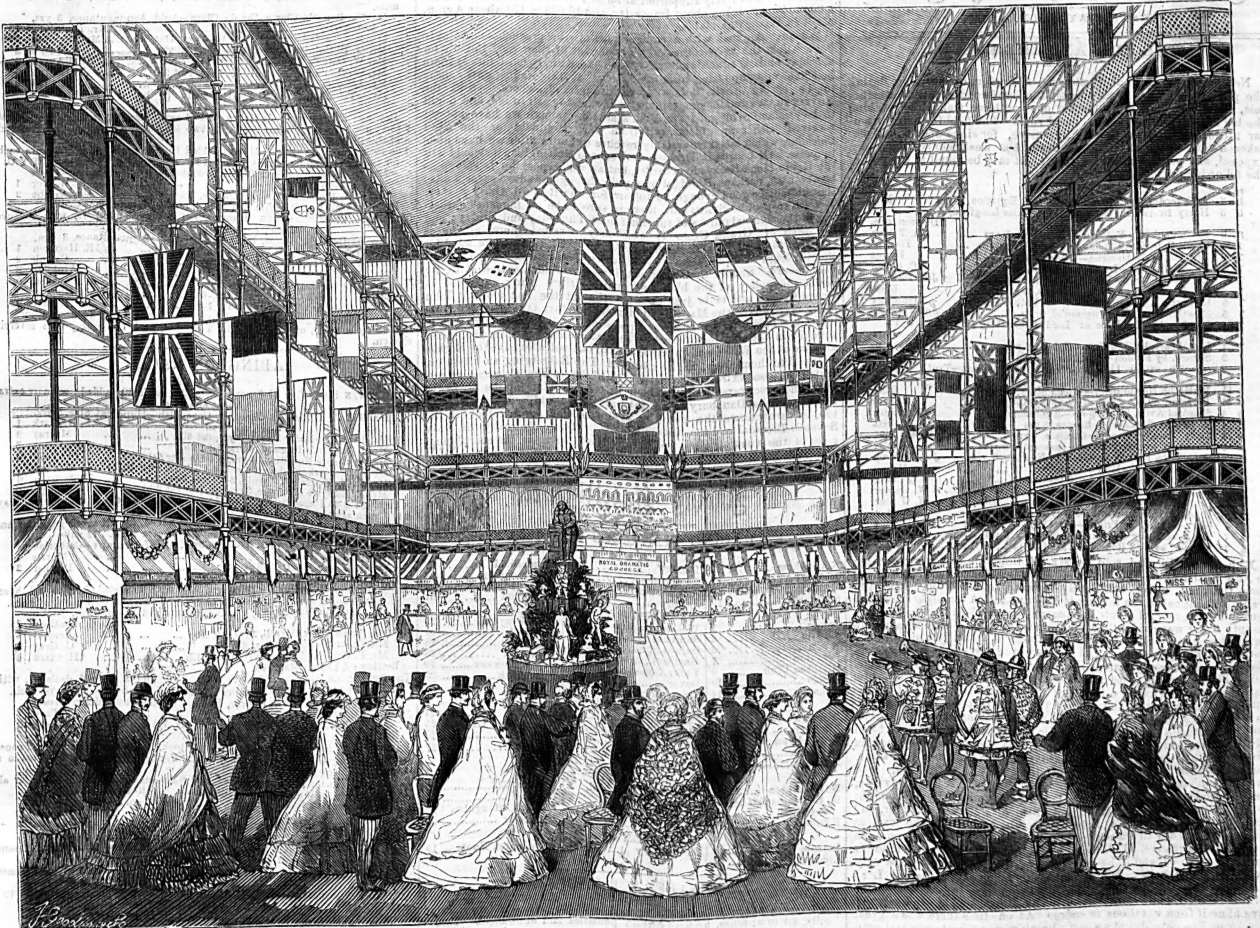

THE HON. ARTILLERY COMPANY.—The annual athletic sports of this ancient body invariably affords a day of recreation and enjoyment to an immense crowd of visitors. A full report of the sports which took place on Saturday week appeared in our last number. Very many of the members this year displayed great proficiency in the various exercises. One of our engravings represents an assault of arms, horse against foot, which excited a great amount of interest.

PORTRAIT OF HAMIL.—We omitted last week to mention that the portrait of Hamill, of his brother, and of James Laughlin, his trainer were from an original photograph most kindly forwarded to us by Mr. Bannister, of Ridley-place, Newcastle.

OYSTER CULTURE.—About 250,000 oysters have been laid down on the new oyster beds at Poole, in Dorsetshire. The beds are now covered with spawn.

FISHERY EXHIBITION IN FRANCE.—At Arachon, near Havre, there is now an exhibition of fish and fishing implements. It was opened on the 1st inst., Mr. Caird, M.P., being present as the representative of the British Government. There are ponds to show the modes of fish-breeding adopted in France, and nets and fishing instruments of every sort, illustrative of the various modes of capturing fish. As the first exhibition of the kind, it possesses considerable attraction and importance, but the collection of articles exhibited is not so large as might have been expected.

A NOVEL RAT-CATCHER.—As a miner was picking limps recently on the rocks of Spit-point, near Par, he heard a screeching noise, and on coming to the spot whence the noise proceeded he found a rat caught by the nose by an oyster. It is probable that the rat wanted to taste the native, and the bivalve not liking its visitor, closed its door unceremoniously, and in the operation caught the voracious animal by the nose, thus contributing to its death, as the miner soon knocked it on the head. — Western Morning News.

THE DRAMATIC FETE AT THE CRYSTAL PALACE.

ALL Lord Hastings's horses were struck out of the Nottingham Handicap immediately after his lordship saw the weights.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—This medicine has been constantly increasing in publication for years, and is now acknowledged to be the most wonderful cure for the stomach, renovating the springs of life, and purifying the blood, eradicating liver complaints, that miseries of so many diseases—indigestion, constipation, and all the evils, and general debility, which attend the system, on which the stomach may place the most dependence, and obtain perfect restoration to health. The hypochondriac and dyspeptic should resort to these invigorating Pills, which are capable of converting the gloomy shadows of their life into bright sunshine, and changing back those naturally happy thoughts engendered by a good digestion.

HIGH WATER AT LONDON BRIDGE

In calculating the time of High Water at Chelsea, 35 minutes must be added to that given at London Bridge; 50 minutes must be added for Putney; Hammersmith is one hour later; Barnes, 1 hour and 10 minutes; Kew, 1 hour and 30 minutes; and Richmond, 1 hour and 50 minutes later than London Bridge.

THE INTERNATIONAL BOAT MATCHES.
WHAT THE AMERICAN THOUGHT OF HIS DEFEAT.
(From our Newcastle Correspondent.)

(From our New York Special Representative's report.)
The general opinion here regarding Hamill's triumph at the finals was wherefore of Hamill's defeat. Boating is a sport that finds favour with all Englishmen, and as one of our national recreations where science and moderation is needed, it will ever do so. In several years, the question of absolute priority has turned between our English and American crews, and the events of the past few days have accordingly been watched with keen interest. It is true that we had led the controversy indisputably in favour of this country. Nothing could have been more decisive, the two representatives had a fair field, and Kelley vanquished the American without the least effort, and in the absence of any serious or questionable action on his part. He would be accorded to Hamill, he travelled no less than 300 miles, and he was obliged to pull over 3,000 miles. At such a distance from 3,600 miles to pull our champion, and like many other perenages of celebrity he was beaten; there is no disgrace to be attached to this; one of the two could only win by being equipped with the system of the other, and this was preposterous. On our side, the spectators were all but exhausted the meagre information, on our hand, there was little to work upon except the public's anticipation of the treat Hamill's rowing was to afford, and it turned out such a rotten other these sons Hamill was mysteriously relieved of, but we have reason to suppose not by an Englishman. It is scarcely possible to imagine the heartlessness of such a treacherous, almost unnatural act. Mr. James H. Baird, of the "Star," gave Hamill the handsome gift of £5 for his colour—two hopes other Newcomers would do well to emulate. Mr. Baird, however, was not the only one who did so. Kellogg Kelley, Hamill would leave Newcastle on Thursday; it is not his intention to visit London, although every inducement has been offered. Mr. J. Brown, Bloomsbury Inn, where he resides, has offered £500 for the horse, and £100 for the expenses. No fewer than three presentations to Hamill took place on Wednesday, at Mr. Brown's, aforesaid, a beautiful gold watch; at the Tyne Concert Hall, a gold medal; and at the Oxford, a massive and costly sword. The purse of £1000 was subscribed by Mr. J. H. Baird, headed the list with five guineas.

The following straightforward and manly letter has been addressed by Hamill to the Newcastle Daily Chronicle :—

"Dear Sir,—I could like to express, through your columns, to the people of Newcastle, Gateshead, and Tyneside generally, my most sincere thanks for their kindness to me and my countrymen since we came to this country. We came to England entire strangers. We were met immediately we landed at Liverpool by Newcastle friends; and from the first day we touched your shores to the present hour we have experienced nothing but unvarying kindness from everyone and from all classes.

"I have especially to thank the River Tynes Commissioners, the River Police, and those in charge of vessels, for their efforts to secure for both the races a fair course."

"To the press of this district I also wish to give my warmest thanks for the generous manner in which they have always spoken of me. And last, but not least, I wish to express my acknowledgments to the backers of Mr. Kelley for the fair manner in which they have conducted all the arrangements for the two matches.

"I have been fairly beaten over a clear course in a fair and honourable contest. I have nothing to complain of in any way, and cheerfully admit I was beaten by my opponent in a fair and honest struggle. I would scorn to seek to cover my defeat by making excuses or hatching apologies."

"I would like, however, to have another trial, and I hereby offer to

Previously to rounding, each yacht shifted topsail and jib, the Satanella and the Vampire sending up jib-headed ones, the Octoroon a large flying jib, and the Wanderer a large jib, and the Wanderer a large jib, under plain lower canvas. However, soon after heading round the steamer she likewise set a "jib-header," but even then her performance on the wind did not seem to satisfy her sailing-master, and she again shifted for her square-headed topsail, working through the Lower Hope. She certainly afterwards did not sail so well, the gaff-topsail continually shaking and swaying the peak of the mainsail to leeward. The Vampire very considerably increased her lead in the

I and my friends will promise any Englishman who will do this that we will do our best to secure for him as fair treatment as I have experienced in New-castle.

"In conclusion, I beg once more to return my own and my countrymen's thanks to the good people of Tyneside for their great kindness to us all while we have lived amongst them. Yours very truly, to us all while we have lived amongst them.—Yours, very truly, “Mr. Brown’s, Blenheim House, July 5.” “JAMES HAMILL.

Kolley arrived in the metropolis at about half-past nine in the evening of Saturday last, and made his way, accompanied by Mr. Sadler, Queen's Counsel, to the rooms of the bookmakers of the Derby, to the Oxford Music Hall, and after staying in the latter place till ten o'clock, repaired to the Canterbury, where a most complete ovation awaited him. The hall was densely packed with human beings who cheered Kolley in a most vociferous style, and would not desist until he had taken a most hearty and hearty meal on the stage, attended by Messrs. Morton and Bush. Kolley in a few words returned his sincere thanks for the manner in which they had received him, and announced his intention now that he was indeed Champion of the World, of retiring from public life, and devoting himself to his private affairs, and to the education of his children. He was then surrounded by a large concourse of military and naval officers, and other chiefs. A large concourse were present, and he was surrounded by cheers and congratulations were poured in upon him at Putney, and he was then driven to his residence at Putney, where he was met by his family and friends, and where he was met by his family and friends, and where he was met by his family and friends.

On Saturday last the closing match of the season took place under the most favourable conditions of wind and weather. The Queen of the Thames steamer, with the commodore (Mr. Aroedekno) and a large quantity of passengers on board, accompanied the race. The original course was from Erith to the Nore and return; but, as is generally the case in nine out of ten of these tidal matches, the course had to be shortened, and the yachts rounded the accompanying steamer off Southend. The prizes were, first, thirty guineas; second, ten guineas; and the following contended:—

Yacht.	Tons.	Owner.
Octoroon	12 ..	Mr. F. H. Lemann.
Vampire	20 ..	Mr. Thos. Cuthbert.
Satanella	14 ..	Mr. P. Bennett.

Time allowed was half a minute per ton for difference of tonnage. These vessels started at 11.25 under a light N.W. by W. breeze, and with an ebb tide. The Octoroon was particularly smart in getting under way, and from this circumstance obtained a slight lead at starting, the Satanelle following second; the Vampire, having a much larger mainmast to hoist, and no more men at the halyards than the others, was comparatively slow getting under way, but directly she swung round before the wind she commenced "running" the Satanelle and before 300 fathoms of water had been sailed over passed to the front. The Satanelle set a squareail, and the Octoroon a long kick.

turn back, and the Satanella beat the Octoroon in a notable manner. Nothing more noteworthy occurred until they arrived off Erith, and terminated the match by passing between the commodore's schooner Violet and a flag buoy at—

Vampire	6	30	45
Satanella	6	45	37
Octoroon	6	53	14

The Vampire and the Satanella being thus entitled to first and second prizes, the commodore with appropriate speeches made the presentations to Mr. Outhbert and Mr. Bennett.

Amateur yacht-matches have been often talked about yet never seen but with one exception, and that last year, when the Royal Thames Yacht Club tried the experiment for a prize presented by a member; this, however, turned out little better than a failure, as but two yachts started, and only one was a racing yacht. This year, the club has abandoned by the Royal Thames Yacht Club, and the objection, one, and, as will be seen by the subjoined report of what occurred on Monday, with perfect success, as we are pleased to find all their yachting undertakings are. There was no steamboat to accompany, therefore Mr. Andrew Arcuteckne, the commodore, placed his own yacht, the Volat, at the disposal of the club, and entertained a party with their several

Mr. Alfred Mellon's concerts will open August 6th.

Mr. D. Mialek Murray will join the Olympic company next season.

Mr. W. F. Cummings, the tenor, has won the first prize (a silver cup valued at thirty guineas) given annually by the Catch Club.

Mr. Buckstone's benefit is fixed for August 1st, the last night of the Haverhill market season.

A new version of Messrs. Halliday and Lawrence's burlesque, "Kenilworth" is in rehearsal at the Strand.

Mr. Phelps and Miss Atkinson are about to play a short engagement at Theatre Royal, Birmingham.

The writer of "Echoes of the Week" in the Illustrated London News said that Mr. Boucicault recently asked £20,000 for a sensation drama. Echo instances have most scandalously hoaxed the writer.

From New York we learn that "Columbus of Flitustero," Mr. J. Brougham's "second best burlesque," is in rehearsal for the Winter Garden Theatre, where "J. B." is at present filling an engagement.

The Davenport Brothers, who are performing in Belgium, have dropped the pretended spiritual inspiration. They now perform their tricks simply sleight-of-hand tricks, like other conjurers.

Mr. C. H. Stephenson, of the Adelphi, has translated and adapted to English stage Offenbach's opera bouffe "Trombalcazar," selections from which are now being given at the Canterbury Hall.

The last but one of the present series of delightful Crystal Palace concerts and promenades takes place to-day (Saturday). Gluck's "Iphigenia" will be given.

Miss Kate Ranee, the charming Minerva of the present Strand burlesque "Paris," will take a first benefit in London on the 18th inst. at the Royalty. Mr. Burnand's burlesque "Patient Penelope" will be given

Mr. D. D. Home, whose arranged appearance at the St. James's has been through, as detailed in another paragraph, will appear for "one night only," viz., that of the 23rd inst., as de Neuville in "Plot and Passion," at the New Royalty. Mr. Home will be supported by some fashionable amateur.

At the first half-yearly meeting of the Alhambra Palace Company, the profits for the half-year were declared to be £5,135 7s. 3d. Of this sum, a dividend at the rate of 20 per cent. per annum, agreed to at the meeting, absorbed about £1,000, the balance for carrying over to the next account.

The obituary of the week includes the name of Madame Tamburini, wife of the famous baritone. Tamburini, since his retirement from the stage, has lived in the bosom of his family on an estate purchased by him in the Swiss Alps. Here it was that Madame Tamburini died.

A "Baroque English Opera Company" has been organized in the United States, and has opened at Williamsburgh with "Ixion; or, the Man on a Wheel." This is said by one of the New York newspapers to be "the first anything of the kind has been attempted in this country."

Mrs. John Wood, an immensely popular comedienne and burlesque artist of New York, has relinquished the management of the Olympic Theatre at that city and sailed for Europe. The Olympic passes into the hands of George, whose predilections are operative.

Miss Amy Sedgwick will leave the Haymarket Theatre for a short time immediately after the close of Mr. Backstone's summer season in August. Mrs. Buckingham White, Miss E. Farren, and Mr. John Nelson will form part of Miss Sedgwick's company.

The latest gymnastic rage in Paris is the feat of an acrobat who, suspended from a beam head downwards, and having a rope between his teeth, challenges another acrobat to perform all sorts of tricks while hanging to the rope.

Mr. Boucicault will follow up his invasion of the French stage, as per "Jean la Poste," by the production of an original comedy at the Français. At least so it is said. You see, Messieurs Playwrights of France, what follows the insertion of the thin end of the wedge!

The project having for its object the appearance of Mr. D. D. Home "spiritualist," upon the boards of the St. James's Theatre, as Mr. O. "The Jealous Wife," seems to have fallen through. Postponed from time, it is now announced that on the production of "The Jealous Wife," next, the part of Mr. O'Leary will be played by Mr. Creswick.

Messrs. Walter Weldon, Smith, and Robertson, the trio mixed up in the least, so extraordinary a manner with the late proceedings in against Mr. Sothorn, have been edifying the public by a series of the newspapers flatly contradicting each other on the matter of how Messrs. Spiers and Pond, the refreshment contractors, have hit happy thought of establishing promenade concerts at the sea-side. "By the Sea," is the title given to an extensive building they open to-day, at Margate, for this purpose. M. Jullien is installed conductor and vocalists of the best are to be imported direct from London.

We last week summarised the recommendations of the Parliamentary Committee upon Theatrical Licences as far as they related to London. With reference to the provinces it is recommended that the licensing in the first instance should be transferred from the local magistrates to the Lord Chamberlain; the magistrates to continue to have power as regards general supervision. The censorship of plays for all England is to be placed in the hands of the Lord Chamberlain, and the cinema and dramatic halls throughout the kingdom are to share with plays the same control of that functionary.

E. T. Smith is going in for Dunmow and Domestic Felicity, Benedictism. As thus:—

usual ceremonies, to the happy couple who can truthfully declare to claim it.—Applicants for the honour and substantial reward are to apply to Mr. E. T. Smith, Cremona. N.B.—Railway fares to Dunmow will be paid.

In addition to the sitch and their railway fare the happy couple collence will, we understand, be presented each with a latch key ticket for Cremona.—O rare E. T. S.!

SALE OF THE HIGHFIELD AND WATFORD YEARLINGS.

The sale of the yearlings bred by Mr. George Mather at Highfield, near St. Alban's, and those bred by Mr. C. Snewing, at Watford, took place at Tattersall's on Monday, but, owing to the counter-attraction at the Crystal Palace, Lord's, and the Oval, no less than to the town beginning to this fast, the attendance included so few buyers of blood stock that all the youngsters disposed of realised wretched prices, save in one instance alone. The three yearlings bred by Mr. Snewing were first offered, but only two found buyers—Prince George by Prime Minister, out of Shunting by The Ugly Buck, her dam Teresa, by I. anger, &c. This colt, who in colour takes after his sire, was deserving of a better audience, being large and handsome, with great substance and power. He was put in at 10/6, but very soon reached 40/6, when the hammer fell to Mr. P. Oldacre's bid, whom it was at first thought bought him for Baron Rothschild, but it subsequently transpired that the purchase was made for Mr. R. Sutton, who certainly would not have got him at a more fashionable sale for anything like the same figure. Treaty, by Wild Dayrell, out of British Remedy, was the next lot offered, but, being small, she only made 23/6; and the next, Pinner, by Caracass out of Margaret by Chanticleer, who was also small, was withdrawn, to offer being made for him. The yearlings bred by Mr. G. Mather were eleven in number, comprising two Dundees—a colt and a filly; four Prime Ministers—two colts and two fillies; four Touchwoods—all fillies; and one Plum Pudding—a colt; but, owing to so few buyers being present, three of them were withdrawn, viz., the Prime Minister colt out of Amorous Girl, and two of the Touchwood fillies, the daughters respectively of Tamark and Lady Pam's dam. The daughter of Dundee and Queen Anne—a large but not very well furnished filly—went to Mr. Reeves at the low figure of 25/6; but the Dundee colt, who is the making of a very clever horse, being large and lengthy, with very fair substance, did better, as he went to 15/6, a figure Mr. A. Heathcote was well content to give for him. The colt by Prime Minister out of Bianca came next, but being small and with rather short quarters, he went at the low figure of 50/6, to Mr. P. Price, who also bought a small but very pretty racing-like colt, by Plum Pudding out of Mulberry, for 27/6. The daughter of Prime Minister and Kernal, a very clever-shaped bay filly, with plenty of substance, failed to realise a third of her value, as Mr. T. Stevens got her for 7/6; but the Nuthush filly, by the same sire, was not badly sold at 7/6, which her dam's late owner gave for her, as she is very small and short. The filly by Touchwood out of Lady Abess bears a striking likeness to her dam, but on a larger scale; she was auctioned by Prince Soltykoff, who got her cheap enough for 70/6; but for Mr. Drake was reserved the greatest bargain of all, as for 30/6 he bought the daughter of Touchwood and Plague Royal, a large lengthy filly with such excellent substance that, if she does not race, she is sure to make a first-class huntress. Appended is a list of the prices, with the name of the buyers.

TROTTING IN AMERICA.—FASTEST WAGON TIME ON RECORD.—On June 14 a match came off on the Union Course, New York, between George Wilkes and Lady Thorne, to trot for 1,000 dollars a side, mile heats, the best three in five. In a previous match for a similar amount, mile heats, in harness, the Hamiltonian stallion, with the odds of 100 dollars to 40 dollars against him, had beaten the flashing bay mare, Lady Thorne, in three straight heats, in 2min 20 sec, 2min 25 sec, 2min 25 sec. In their present race, to waggons, the betting fluctuated in a remarkable degree before the day of the race, the mare up to that time having been the favorite at 100 dollars to 60 dollars; but on the morning the stallion came so steadily into favour that before the horses commenced scoring, the odds became 100 dollars to 40 dollars on his winning the race. The owner of the mare openly declared that she was far from being up to the mark in point of condition, and that he would neither back her nor advise his friends to do so; hence speculation was far from being active. In scoring for the first heat Wilkes broke up, and it is supposed the friends of the mare so much that they offered to bet 500 dollars against 500 dollars she beat him, without any response being elicited. Both broke very badly soon after they got the word, and lost several lengths in consequence, but the last three-quarters of the mile from the quarter pole home, was trotted in the extraordinary time of 1min 55 sec, which is at the rate of 2min 24 sec to the mile, Wilkes winning by eight lengths in 2min 25 sec. He won the second heat by a length, in 2min 25 sec, and the third by two lengths, in 2min 24 sec. The time made by the fleet brown stallion is over two seconds faster than Flora Tynip's Alberto represented mile record to waggons, made in her memorable match against Ethan Allen on the Union Course, L. I., May 31, 1859, when she trotted the first heat 2min 25 sec, but the subsequent heats were 2min 27 sec, 2min 27 sec; which, in the aggregate, is two seconds and a quarter more than the aggregate of the above three heats of Wilkes'. In addition to this, Flora's time was made on a beautifully clear day, with the track in splendid condition for a fast race, whereas in the track and atmosphere were against the Hamiltonian stallion.

The entries for the Grand Prix of Paris, 1866, will close on the 7th August next.
 Lord Exeter's annual sale of yearlings will take place at Woburn Paddocks on the second day of Stamford Races.

NOTTINGHAMSHIRE v. CAMBRIDGESHIRE.

The return match between these two celebrated cricketing counties was played on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday on the Trent-bridge ground, near Nottingham. Cambridgeshire went in first, and batted exceedingly well, making a total of 217. Nottinghamshire followed, and scored 195, leaving 22 to the credit of Cambridgeshire. In their second innings the latter scored 179, leaving Notts 202 to get to win. In Notts' second innings the first two men (Brampton and A. Shaw) were disposed of for 6. Biddulph was bowled by Tarrant for 10, Daft batted steadily for 19, when he was clean bowled by Watts. Osceft made a splendid drive out of the ground for 6, and when the stumps were drawn at a quarter to seven he carried out his bat for 55—six wickets for 99. There not being time to conclude the match, it ended in a draw. Appended is the full score:—

THE RING.

[It is hoped that in future all matches, challenges, matches made, or events decided, &c., will be sent as early in the week as possible (by Thursday morning at the latest), to ensure proper attention at our hands.]

JEM MACE AND JOE GOSS

JEM MACE AND JOE GOSS.

Another deposit of £20 a side has been put down for the match between these celebrities, but £30 a side is expected. Many a warrior had over the last affair openly expressed their doubt as to the genuineness of the present match. We give no opinion of our own on the subject, but hope that each man will on the day wipe out the stain which now rests on the fair fame of both, and show the public what can be done when they meet bit lines. There can be no doubt that it is much better to be beaten in a fair and honorable encounter than to make a draw after a mean and pitiable travesty of a fight.

GALLANT AND DETERMINED FIGHT BETWEEN TIERNEY AND WILSON.

These lads met on Wednesday last to decide their match to fight for £15 a side at 12. It was supposed to be Tuesday, but from circumstances was postponed to Wednesday.

They were both 21 years old, and stands 5ft 5 1/2 in. His first easy way was Young Rooter, of Birmingham, over whom he scored his maiden victory. Another fight took place with a similar result. He was then matched with P. Gillingham, alias Ginger, who was a professional pugilist, and a champion of the county of Herefordshire. After a lengthened fight, was compelled to yield. He next met Mr. Males (blower), and conquered him. He was then matched against Jim Fox and was again beaten. He was backed on the present occasion from Mr. R. Hays, of Tottenham.

His next was named Matt Collinson's Mouse, 21 years, stands 5ft 2 1/2 in. His antecedents were very favourable. In 1902 he beat Bill Sullivan, of Birmingham, and afterwards Bill Rooter after a long struggle. He was then matched with John Gormin, in London, and was again victorious. He was then matched with the Young Count, who being a stout boxer, beat him. On his return he was matched with Tierney, who was defeated in 82 rounds in 1 hour 27 min. He was backed from G. Underhill's, Back 100, Stanfair street, Birmingham.

The next was a professional pugilist, and was named George Whitton. George Whitton's antecedents could be seen making their way, on arrival at which the order was for 12, the referee leading the van. The instant the ring was entered the lads were ready for action, and at 5 1/2 p.m. the fight was on. The general odds were 10 to 1 against him, and he was the general odds.

Round 1—Tierney, exceedingly anxious, went in with his left, but Wilson got eloclerly away, some pre ty sparring followed, when the Mouse, more fortunate got on the ribs, and went away laughing. Round 12—Both men were taping, and since a few minutes had passed, they were under the lights.

Nothing especially calling for attention occurred till in round 11. At this point, Round 12 was over on the Moore, who put his leg on his opponent's waist, and he was thrown. Moore was evidently the better wrestler.

Round 13—Both considerably tired, and springing forward (sneezed, Wilson) fighting for the first time. Wilson was the victor.

Round 14—The fighting was very even, neither party having any material advantage, both showing signs of weakness, and it was evidently anybody's fight.

Round 15—Moore fell on the rib, and Timmy on the face, Wilson trying to break the leg, it is going down. About this time Timmy's left hand was hurt, and he was out of the fight. This became a Morris, and a fight between the two.

head in the third round, and in the fourth round, after one of the most exciting effects, and during the next three rounds he had every appearance being groggy. They continued to combat till the 72nd round, which was in favour of the Mouse, who here took a decided lead, and beat Tierney down his own corner.

660 3101 SO, WI

It was evident from the result of the fight that Wilson possesses stamina and pluck, which cannot be conquered by ordinary fair play. Tierney although defeated is not disgraced, as he fought throughout gamely, and only succumbed when nature deserted him.

GEN. WILLIAM

A dispute having recently arisen between these lads as to their respective merits at "scrapping," it was agreed to decide the question of static superiority by a resort to nature's weapons in the true old English style, for a tanner, catch-weight. Although the stake was a small one, the interest excited by the affair was very large amongst the R. chdale division, each being

Tom Allen's next task took place on Monday, and was very numerous. He was the members of the P.R. mustered in full force, and the scene displayed in the sets to elicit repeated applause from the spectators. The win! up between T. Allen and T. Phallu was particularly good. A out 70 persons were present.

Tom Kelly, of Bradford, and Harry Allen, of Manchester, continue to pose the needful for their athletic engagement on Aug. 29, for 2104, neither to allow the 10st 10lb. The men have begun to prepare themselves for the fray. Allen is training in the morning, and Kelly in the afternoon.

The passage at arms between Arthur Chambers and James Brady, both of Salford, at 8st 4lb, for £25 a side, stands for decision on Aug. 7. £12 10s.

After much beating about the bush the match between Dawes and Evans (Natal) may be considered off. Dawes not coming to reasonable terms.
